East of your nightmares, west of your dreams. . . Here are the venturers: A thirteen-year-old boy on the Great Plains in 1850 must contend with hunger, smallpox, and intruders from a world and time he can barely imagine. A young woman reporter and an elderly biologist become party to the strangest conspiracy of the century. An ex-Senator, resigned and in disgrace, returns home to the mountains only to find that the past is not dead just deadly. A young Indian man discovers that the ultimate winner may not be so easy to predict in a clash between cultures. A quartet of old friends find their lives inextricably tangled with what may be a ghost from the prehistoric past. These are portraits in fiction of the West. . . fantasy as colorful as an old-time rodeo. . . science fiction as contemporary as the energy industry. Ed Bryant is one of the poets of speculative fiction; his stories are more than speculation, more than metaphor. They create a mythos. The myth throbs as some dark center we believe...
