Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address on Education Lexington, March 5 th, 1851. Gentlemen: In responding to the Resolution of the Board of Curators passed on yesterday, and consenting to the publication of the Address on Education delivered on the evening of the 28 th inst. I must append something of an apology. The short space allowed for its preparation only a little more than three weeks, its having been composed at intervals in the duties of my profession, whilst preparing for and passing through the exciting scenes of our semi-annual Examination and Exhibition, the fact that I participated, and not slightly, in the labors of the Revival in progress for more than a fortnight of the time in the Methodist Church in this City, and withal suffering from sickness and exhaustion, all together rendered it almost impossible for me to do justice either to the subject or myself. Under this consociation of discouraging circumstances, I might be permitted to decline acceding to your request. But, having had assurances from various sources, that its publication might be of...
