It was birthed during a wonderful but very difficult and painful time in my life, which spurred me into seeking God by taking several life lessons classes at my church on prayer and discipleship. I became fascinated with the enormous connotations and hues found in God's different names. The more I studied the different names of God the closer I felt to him and the more proof I found of His loving interventions in my life. Using poetry, prose and journaling, I hope to help others find the deep peace of God's presence in their own lives. In A Woman of Lydia, the reader is encouraged to recall in their hearts and spirit those instances that they have seen the character of God played out...
