The lack of confidence in each other is the greatest hindrance. A dry gtv-ds merchant writes: I was burn in Lowndes County, Alabama, Jnae loth, 18C7. I left there in 1880 and have been a citizen of Montgomery ever since. I have worked on a farm, in a saw-mill, and on a rail-road previous to engaging in my present business. I was educated in the common schools of Lowndes and at a private night school since settling in Montgomery. After working for several years in the dry goods business with a Mr. J. J. Levy, I felt that there was a good opening for colored men along that line: so I left him and rented a small store on one of the principal streets....
